3. Paul Preached in Berea.

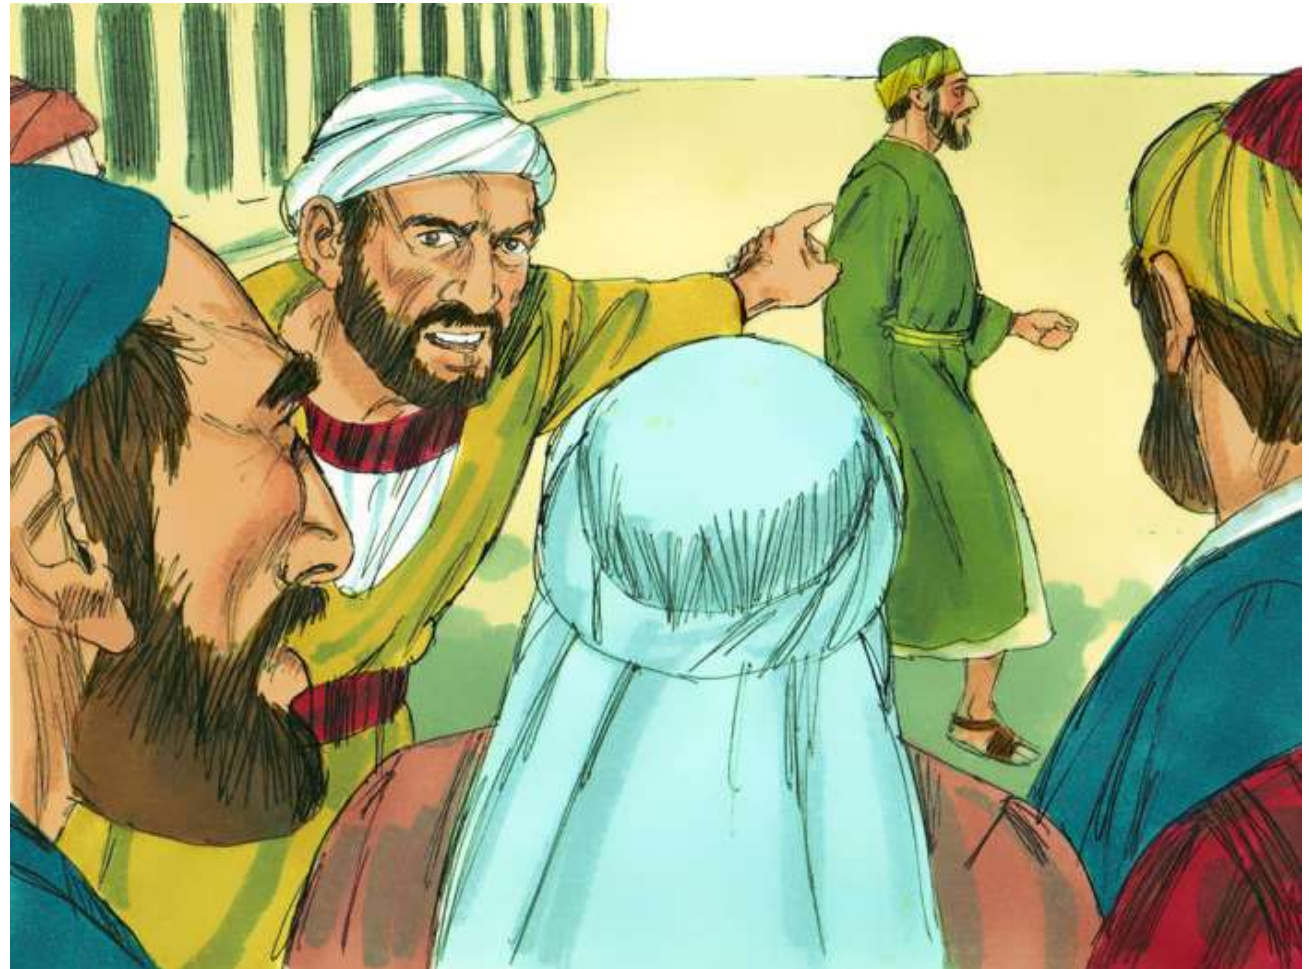

(Acts 17:11-12) First they taught the Jews in the synagogue about Jesus.

*These Jews searched the O.T. Bible to see if Paul taught the truth. Many of them believed on Jesus. Also, many Greeks there believed on Jesus.

(Acts 17:13-14) The unbelieving Jews from Thessalonica came to Berea and attacked them again forcing them out of Berea.

(Acts 17:16-31) Paul saw many idols in Athens. They worshipped many different gods.

(Acts 17:16-31) Paul argued with both the Greek idolaters and with the Jews in the synagogue.

(Acts 17:16-31)

There were many different teachers and religions in Athens.

*Because Paul taught them about Jesus' resurrection from the dead, they thought Paul taught about some new, strange god.

(Acts 17:19-21) The leaders in Athens wanted to hear about Paul's new god (Jesus). They brought Paul to their famous Mars' hill the Areopagus (meeting place),

(Acts 17:22-31) Paul Preached:

- * You are very religious—many gods.
- You don't know the One True God.
- God Made all things.
- God gives life to all.
- God is Sovereign (King/controller) over all.
- God is near—You can know Him.
- God is not like idols.

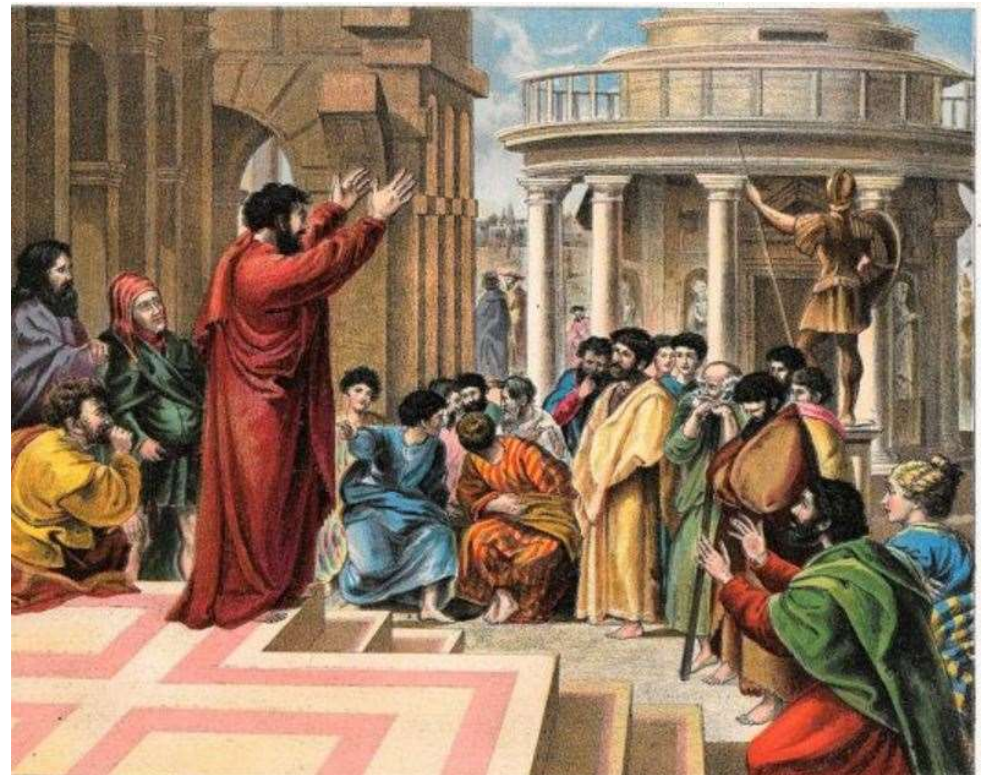

(Acts 17:22-28) Paul Preached:

- * God has been patient, but now commands all to repent.
- God sent His Son, Jesus, Who He raised from the dead. Jesus will judge all people.

(Acts 17:32-34) Some mocked Paul and the Gospel. They thought the teaching about Jesus' resurrection from the dead was foolish.

*However, a few believed and Paul taught them more.

5. Paul Taught in Corinth.

(Acts 18:1, 8) Paul Went to Corinth.

(Acts 18:9-10) In Corinth many believed the Gospel and were baptized.

* Jesus came to Paul in a dream and told him not to be afraid and to openly teach. Jesus said that there were many who would believe in Corinth.
